ASHES-Pearls are very quiet, and we cannot hear to-day of any sales. The nominal rate is $5 874, but there appears to be no buyers at that price. Pots are $5 25 a 5 371 with tales of about 75 to 80 bbls. There are not many sellers at $5.95 There were no arrivals, and no hills out to-day. The quantity affoat and on the docks here is small, but buyers are classist entirely out of the market as they auticipate next week a reaction in the market and a decline to the rates of last week, consequently there is very little doing. Holders generally ask $4 60, but the sales are mostly at $4 45% for Genesse; Oino and Michigan $4 37% a 4 45%. A mixed lot, 460 bbls., round and flat Obio and Michigan sold at 34 314. A lot of 500 bbls, "Venice Mills" sold at $4 75.— There is little or no New Orleans here. Small saks George town are making at $4 50, and about 400 bbls. The stock is ample for the winter's supply.

GRAIN-We notice a sale of 2000 bush. Illinois Wheat for milling at 37c. There is a moderate supply, but the demand is limited. In Corn there is not much doing, there being little disposition to buy at present rates. We notice sales 500 bush, old White Northern at 56c, weight. We quote old Northern 52 wt., at 55, meas.; new 46 a 48. Sales 2500 bash. Delaware at 52c. weight, delivered. Northern and New Orleans are plenty. The market is now clear of Bar-ley again, the few lots here about 1500 bush, having sold at 48c. for city brewers and distillers. Buyers refuse to give 70c. to-day for Rye. Very little offering. Several thousand bushes Canal Oats sold to-day at 274c. No Shorts in market Some Ship Stuffs received to-day sold at 10c.

HaY-This article has rather a tendency to improve although the demand is not very large. We quote 38 a 43, with nothing good below 40c.

Butter is dull. At Cincinnati $2 per cwt is the highest price that has been actually paid for Hogs this season. Only two houses are as yet slaughtering, and this is mostly on owners account. All the Hogs yet killed are from Kentucky, where they are always fed and driven to that city earlier than from Ohio or Indiana. The season for active operations among park packers generally seldom be gins curlier than the 1st of December, and although the weather is cool and favorable for them, it is not expected to commence earlier this year. L' An Elegant Hat for $2 62 1-2 Cents.-

DRESS HAT, in imitation of the FRENCH, which they are

system of business peculiar to themselves are enabled to offer the community Hats of fine materials, superior workmanship and of a perfectly fashionable character at prices far below what has ever been attempted by any other house in America engaged in the sale of GENTLEMEN'S

HATS. Sales Room corner Centre st. and City Hall Place.

D' Orlando Fish, Fashionable Hatter, 137 Broad way, would inform the gentlemen of New-York that his

Fall and Winter style of Hats is now ready for their inspection and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction of having been the first to project and abide by a strictly

AMERICAN style of Hats, instead of servilely copying the Fashions of Europe, which are often unsuited to our climate and manners, he rejoices to perseive that others have seen fit to follow his lead, and that now the following of European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by the leading manufacturers.

He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats at $3 50, and warrants them equal in material, finish, fashior

and durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city

But he wishes it distinctly understood that his best Hats are not sold at this price, but at $4 50. These he recommende as equal to any hat sold in New-York at $5 or under, and as equal to any hat soid in the various with any other.

Clentlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call and examine his new stock of Winter hats and indre of their quality. He is confident that, whether the cheapest of the best flat is desired, the inquirer will here be satisfied.
